I'm inviting you to be a part of an exhibition I'm organizing. I'm asking over 50 local artists to each create a portrait of Steve "Sticky" Morrison.

The portrait can be done in any medium you want. It can be based on the attached photograph, or if you prefer, I'll also be scheduling group and one-on-one "sittings" with Steve throughout the next several months.

Your portrait will be picked up at your studio, or wherever is most convenient for you. Then it will be photographed and stored in preparation for the exhibition titled The Sticky Steve Exhibit, 2020. Venue location to be announced soon!

There will also be a full-color catalog ready for the opening. It will feature each portrait, photos of the process and the installation as well as a written/illustrated contribution by Steve. Every artist who participates will be given a complimentary copy.

All I need from you within the next couple days is a response to this flyer with either "I'm in" or "Sorry, but no" to my email: pjoneill32@yahoo.com.

If you're in, I'll be in touch to see if you want to work from the photograph or need a sitting with Steve. I'll also need to pick up your portrait so it can be photographed for the catalogue.

A few more things: Artwork do no later than March 15th, 2020.

You may be one of the artists I've invited who doesn't typically do "portraits". I hope you'll still agree to be a part of this because I think your interpretation will make the project all the more interesting.

You retain all rights to your work. If you want, you can make your work available for purchase out of the gallery, or you can make it not for sale.

I realize I'm not giving any information on why I chose Steve as the centerpiece of this. If you want to know before you start, please email me and I'll get right back to you. Or you may wish to create your portrait without knowing. Also feel free to email me with any other questions or comments you might have. I hope you'll say yes, and thanks for taking the time to consider this.
